A Blow At The West When the McKinley bill was first formulated and Mr. Blaine urged his reciprocity plan, the Democratic press of the country blazoned with laudations of Blaine and reciprocity. They would undoubtedly have incorporated reciprocity in their party creed had not the Kepubiicaus wisely anticipated them. But now bat it is a Republican policy, the Democratic leaders feel bound to oppose it "without rhyme or reason" The new and bill wipes out reciprocity. Let us see how that will work: In 1822 our exports to Cubs amounted to $12,269,500. Under the reciprocity treaty with Spain, negotiated under the terms of the Mc Kinley law, our exports in 1813 amounted to $21,604,091, which is a remarkable.
